"A Smooth Ride"
Behavior Management Strategies that Work
Kathryn Phillips
June 2008 Pre-Service Training for Bus Drivers

More and more school bus drivers are faced with the daunting task of transporting students with challenging behaviors. The workshop provides drivers with an understanding of the purpose of student misbehavior, how adults escalate conflict and how to keep minor behaviors minor. Drivers, trainers, and transportation personnel leave this workshop with hundreds of proven ways to deal with challenging behaviors.

About the Presenter...

Kathryn Phillips, president and founder of Total Behavior Management, is a motivating, dynamic and humorous presenter who believes that each child has the right to reach his or her fullest potential in a safe learning environment.

Ms. Phillips is a college professor, published author, and internationally recognized speaker and consultant. Her thirty-one years of experience have included teaching from preschool to college age, special education, and administration. She has worked with thousands of educators, bus drivers, parents, legal and medical professionals on a variety of educational issues including comprehensive behavior management systems, effective parent involvement and working with challenging students.

Tears on the Highway, A film by Thomas Brown
Pete Japikse, Associate Director
Ohio Department of Pupil Transportation

Bullying is a nationally recognized problem – on the playgrounds, in the classrooms, hallways, bathrooms, and school buses. Even with our school buses being operated by caring and responsible professionals, and even though they continue to be the safest mode of transportation, bullying is a problem that must be acknowledged and managed appropriately. "Tears on the Highway" is a new film that presents a 'what if' scenario. 'What if' children were being so disrespectful to the driver and fellow riders that it would directly contribute to a driver losing control of the bus?

This session will dive into the 'what if' scenario, and then spend time talking about student behavior management.
